

Saint John's Methodist Church, Kingshighway and Washington Blvd., St. Louis, Missouri

St. John's Methodist Church in St. Louis was organized in 1868. The present stately edifice, built of Bedford limestone and reflecting the early Renaissance style of architecture, was erected in 1902. In 1927, the Singleton Memorial Chapel with its beautiful Gothic interior was added. St. John's is one of the outstanding churches of St. Louis. Rev. Albea Godbold, Ph.D., Minister.
